

Supporting Communities in Developing Countries – Fair Trade

East Worlington Parish Hall Management Committee supports communities in Developing Countries by using Fair Trade products when possible and when not in conflict with support for local producers.

